

Afterlight

When I was young
I never knew
All I wanted was delight
I didn't know
About good or evil
Just how to play day and night

Things in this world
Strange to me
Things in my mind
I don't believe

Pieces of world
Came to me
Places in time
Moved aimlessly

Things in this world
Strange to see
Things in my mind
I don't believe

Seeing this world
As nobody
Stages and rhymes
That I conceive

Hear the whispers
In the night
Shadows on the wall
Something in the darkness
My back's against the wall

I got older
I didn't change
But I could see it was a game
I searched far in foreign lands
Like a moth to a flame

Things in this world
Strange to me
Things in my mind
I don't believe

Pieces of world
Came to me
Places in time
Moved aimlessly

Things in this world
Strange to see
Things in my mind
I don't believe

Seeing this world
As nobody
Stages and rhymes
That I conceive

Hear the whispers
In the night
Shadows on the wall
My back's against the wall

Something moving
Inside of me
My heart is racing
I've got to get free

My skin is freezing
In the moonlight glow
Running through a forest
Where do I go

I came to a river
She sat on the bank
As I approached her
Her expression was blank

Ohhhh Oh Oh
Ohhhh Oh Oh
Ohhhh Oh Oh
Ohhhh Oh Oh

Hear the whispers
In the night
Shadows on the wall

City of Angels

-----

I'm alone
Still I'm doing fine
There's a fire
That's burning inside

People lost
Hands held out
Spilt blood on these streets
But I've got no doubts

I feel alive
In the night
Basking in
The neon lights
I don't know why
I love it here
The City of Angels.
Never sleeps

Down at the beach
I met a girl with a car
Now we're catching some rays
On Sunset Boulevard

I've got no money
I don't have a job
But she don't mind
We stopped at a coffee shop

I feel alive
In the night
Basking in
The neon lights
I don't know why
I love it here
The City of Angels
Never sleeps

Happy

---

Not well today
But I'll get by
When things drag me down
I start to fly

My feet leave the ground
Call it what you will
Lifted by a force
Gets me up that hill

You'll never understand
Don't expect you to
We all walk in Different shoes

I found my place
I feel it in my soul
Not breaking down
I'm in control

Happy! Happy! Happy!
I'm not feeling sad
Not like those people
That are feeling bad
Happy! Happy! Happy!
No tears today
No dark clouds
Just warm sun rays

Made my way
To the corner store
Checked out a paper
But that stuff's a bore

I like the trees
I like the sky
Sometimes I want to Get so high

Look at the world
With a different view
I know my thoughts
They bother you

Your self misery
Won't infect my heart
I'll close my door
Until you fall apart

Happy! Happy! Happy!
I'm not feeling sad
Not like those people
That are feeling bad
Happy! Happy! Happy!
No tears today
No dark clouds
Just warm sun rays

Eternal Kiss

---

Feeling the wind
Lifting up the dust
I'm standing in the rain
Covered in rust

I broke you down
Shattered your will
I sense your blood
Move in to kill

Nothing matters
I'm feeling fine
Within your eyes
The stars align
I fall down
And accept your gift
Your Eternal Kiss
Your Eternal Kiss

A century ago
On the banks of the Nile
I felt your breath
I treasured your smile

Your poison sank deep
Into my soul
Time it stood still
My skin turned cold

Am I awake
I don't know
Is this a test
Your face aglow

Things I Never Knew

---

Some may say
I've lost my way
I'm walking in a circle
Night and day

I know I'm a loner
Don't have many friends
But it doesn't matter
When you reach the end
Reach the end
Reach the end
Reach the end

Looking out the window
The sky so blue
When you stop and look
You'll see things you never knew
Grass so green
Feeling like a kite
I walked a thin line
But I'm doing alright

Spent many years
Looking for myself
Couldn't find an answer
It killed my health

I tried my best
But it was all pretend
But it doesn't matter
When you reach the end
Reach the end
Reach the end
Reach the end

Transcend

-----

Voices in my head
Am I falling apart
Everything is red
They say this is the start

Will you be my friend
Until the end
Breaking through the barrier
Will we transcend

Stuck inside this shell
I can't break free
The world has turned black
I can't see
Stuck inside this shell
I can't break free
The world has turned black
I can't see

Will we transcend?
Will we transcend?
Will we transcend?
Will we break free?

Will we transcend?
Will we transcend?
Will we transcend?
Will we break free?

I made some time
I don't care about facts
Nothing is mine
I just want to relax

I crossed the line
There's no going back
The wall began to shatter
I fell through the cracks

I Can't See The End

-----

Seeing
For the first time
Something
I was missing

You said
Don't let it go
Couldn't understand
How you knew

Trying to walk the line
It's become so hard
Trying to walk the edge
It seems oh so far

I can't see the end!
I can't see the end!
I can't see the end!
I can't see the end!
I can't see the end!
I can't see the end!
I can't see the end!

Hearing
The world at play
I'm feeling weary
Don't know what to say

You said
Come back in
From high above
The city looks thin

Trying to walk the line
It's become so hard
Trying to walk the edge
It seems oh so far

I can't see the end!
I can't see the end!
I can't see the end!
I can't see the end!
I can't see the end!
I can't see the end!
I can't see the end!

I tried my best
Everything a mess
Russian roulette
I failed the test

The Sun Always Shines

-----

I've got this feeling
As I closed the door
Maybe seen it in a dream
I've been here before

Ghosts they haunt me
Illusions in the mind
I've got to leave
I'm running out of time

But...

Sometimes the rain it falls
Sometimes we have to crawl
It may get dark but we will see
The sun it always shines

I fell down a hole
I was in a strange place
Down a long dark hall
I could see terror's face

I put it to rest
Scars on my wrists
I was growing numb
I was woken by a kiss

But...

Sometimes the rain it falls
Sometimes we have to crawl
It may get dark but we will see
The sun it always shines

Looking in the mirror
I can't see my face
Sometimes my life's a mess
Some kind of test inside a maze
Staring at the mirror
I smile into the gaze
I'll get dressed up and Drive this sadness away

But...

Sometimes the rain it falls
Sometimes we have to crawl
It may get dark but we will see

We All Die Alone

-----
Some people think they live forever
They're scared of getting old
I'm not scared of the dark
I don't mind if I have to go

Life is fun sometimes it sucks
It's hard to get a hold
The universe is strange
It has complete control

But...

We all die alone
That's the fact
We all die alone
There's no coming back

Some people are serious
They never crack a smile
They don't like what you say
They become hostile

I take it easy everyday
I move slow not fast
They like it when they win
I always come in last

But...

We all die alone
That's the fact
We all die alone
There's no coming back

Hourglass

-----
Dark is the sky
Dead is the sun
Deep inside
I'm feeling so numb

The world overturned
Watch it burn
Wisdom or fiction
What have we learned

The midnight hour
The time has come
The hourglass empty
See what we've done
The drums are beating
Beyond the gates
The hourglass empty
Decides my fate

Down in the mud
I crawl like a dog
Within my tomb
Lost in the smog

I know you're there
On the other side
I can feel your touch
But I am denied

The midnight hour
The time has come
The hourglass empty
See what we've done
The drums are beating
Beyond the gates
The hourglass empty
Decides my fate

Broken window pane
Token picture frame
This is nothing real
I'm just a stain

I'm going insane
I'm calling your name
There's no you and me and
I'm just a stain

Standing in the rain
I'm feeling so drained
Help me to feel
I'm just a stain

I went away
In a passenger train
You're hard as steel
I'm just a stain

Time grows thin
Don't know this face
I've lost my way
Don't know what should take place

I'm locked up
Please take me home
I tried to call
please pick up your phone

The midnight hour
The time has come
The hourglass empty
See what we've done

The drums are beating
Beyond the gates
The hourglass empty
Decides my fate

Madness in the heart
Madness in the soul
My flesh is burning
But I feel so cold

Everything is calm
Yet I'm in a storm
Breaking up inside
I wish I was never born

The midnight hour
The time has come
The hourglass empty
See what we've done
The drums are beating
Beyond the gates
The hourglass empty
Decides my fate

Giving and lying
I shut off the light
Taking and trying
To do it all right

Living and flying
I think that I might
Be shaking off the excess things
Of this life

The midnight hour
The time has come
The hourglass empty
See what we've done
The drums are beating
Beyond the gates
The hourglass empty
Decides my fate

Broken window pane
This is nothing real
I'm just a stain

I'm going insane
I'm calling your name
There's no you and me and
I'm just a stain

Standing in the rain
I'm feeling so drained
Help me to feel
I'm just a stain

I went away
In a passenger train
You're hard as steel
I'm just a stain

Now I'm up above
Standing over my shell
Wake up please don't leave
Don't wanna say farewell

Yet I have to go
As another takes my place
Down to the basement
Down the staircase

The midnight hour
The time has come
The hourglass empty
See what we've done
The drums are beating
Beyond the gates
The hourglass empty
Decides my fate

Broken window pane
This is nothing real
I'm just a stain

I'm going insane
I'm calling your name
There's no you and me and
I'm just a stain
